If you ask us to request the depositor’s bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check, and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account reaccredited due to a prior stop payment order or if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

Your available balance may be lower than your actual balance due to funds held for debit card transactions you have authorized and deposited checks held pursuant to our funds availability policy. You can view your available balance through Online Banking and at ATMs to avoid an overdraft. Transactions may not be presented in the order which they occurred and the order in which checks or items are received and processed may affect if an overdraft occurs. The Credit Union processes checks and items as follows: (i) checks are paid in the chronological order they are received, (ii) for ACH items, credits are processed first and ACH debits processed second with the lowest items paid first, and (iii) debit card transactions are paid in the chronological order they are received.

c. Notice to Credit Union. You agree that the Credit Union's retention of drafts does not alter or waive your responsibility to examine your statements and draft copies or the time limit for notifying the Credit Union of any errors. The statement will be considered correct for all purposes and the Credit Union will not be liable for any payment made or charged to your account unless you notify the Credit Union in writing within the above time limit after the statement and checks are made available to you. If you fail to receive a statement, you agree to notify us within 14 days of the time you ordinarily receive it.

d. Electronic Statements (eStatements). If your statement is provided electronically, statements will be: (1) electronically mailed to you as an attachment; or (2) you will be sent a notice via email that will direct you to a site we maintain or cause to be maintained where you may access, review, print and otherwise copy/download your periodic statements using procedures we authorize. Emails from us will be sent to the email address provided by the account owner. The mailing date is the date the Credit Union notifies you of the statement availability.

18. Termination of Account. The Credit Union may terminate your account at any time without notice to you or may require you to close your account and apply for a new account if (1) there is a change in owners or authorized signers; (2) there has been a forgery or fraud reported or committed involving your account; (3) there is a dispute as to the ownership of the funds in the account; (4) any account checks are lost or stolen; (5) if there are excessive returned unpaid items not covered by an overdraft protection plan; (6) if there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts; or (7) we reasonably deem it necessary in order to prevent a loss to the Credit Union. You may terminate your account at any time by notifying the Credit Union by oral direction or in writing. The Credit Union is not responsible for payment of any check, withdrawal, or other item once your account is terminated; however, if the Credit Union pays a check after termination, you agree to reimburse the Credit Union for payment.

19. Termination of Membership. You may terminate your membership at the Credit union after giving written notice of your intent to withdraw from membership. You may be denied services or expelled from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, including causing a loss to the Credit Union.

20. Special Account Instructions. You may request the Credit Union to facilitate certain trust, will, or court-ordered account arrangements. However, because the Credit Union does not give legal advice, we cannot counsel you as to which account arrangement most appropriately meets the specific requirements of your trust, will, or court order. If you ask the Credit Union to follow instructions that the Credit Union believes might expose it to claims, suits, lawsuits, expenses, liabilities, or damages, whether directly or indirectly, the Credit Union may refuse to follow your instructions or may require you to post a bond to indemnify the Credit Union. Any item presented with a full payment legend must be presented in person to a Credit Union officer; otherwise, payment is accepted with full reservation of rights. Account changes requested by you, or any account owner, such as adding or closing an account or service, must be evidenced by a signed Account Card and accepted by the Credit Union. The Credit Union will not recognize the authority of someone to whom you have given power of attorney without written authorization and a copy of the Power of Attorney on record at the Credit Union.

21. Severability. In the event that any paragraph of this Agreement or any portion thereof is held by a court to be invalid or unenforceable for any reason, the other paragraphs and portions of this Agreement shall not be invalid or unenforceable and will continue in full force and effect.

22. Enforcement. You agree to be liable to the Credit Union for any liability, loss, or expense as provided in this Agreement that the Credit Union incurs as a result of any dispute involving your accounts or services. You authorize the Credit Union to deduct any such liability, loss, or expense from your account without prior notice to you. In the event either party brings a legal action to enforce the Agreement or collect any overdrawn funds on accounts accessed under this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled, subject to applicable law, to payment by the other party of its reasonable attorney's fees and costs, including fees on any appeal, bankruptcy proceedings, and any post-judgment collection actions, if applicable.

23. Governing Law. This Agreement is governed by the Bylaws of the Credit Union, federal laws and regulations, the laws and regulations of the State of Oregon and local clearinghouse rules, as amended from time to time. Any disputes regarding this Agreement shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the court of the county in which the Credit Union is located.

24. Internet Gambling. The credit union and our business account holders will follow the Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act of 2006 and will not engage in Internet Gambling, as a Business, now, or in the future.

II. Funds Availability Policy

1. General Policy. Our policy is to make funds from your checking account deposits available to you on the next business day after we receive your deposit. Electronic direct deposits will be available on the same business day we receive the deposit. Once the funds are available, you can withdraw the funds in cash and we will use the funds to pay checks that you have written. For determining the availability of your deposits, every day is a business day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and federal holidays. If you make a deposit before 5:00 p.m. on a business day that we are open, we will consider that day to be the day of your deposit. However, if you make a deposit after 5:00 p.m. or on a day we are not open, we will consider that the deposit was made on the next business day we are open.

2. Reservation of Right to Hold. In some cases, we will not make all of the funds that you deposit by check available to you on the next business day after we receive your deposit. Depending on the type of check that you deposit, funds may not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. However, the first $225.00 of your deposit will be available on the first business day. If we are not going to make all of the funds from your deposit available on the first business day, we will notify you at the time you make your deposit. We will also tell you when the funds will be available. If your deposit is not made directly to one of our employees, or if we decide to take this action after you have left the premises, we will mail you the notice by the day after we receive your deposit.

3. Holds on Other Funds. If we cash a check for you that is drawn on another financial institution, we may withhold the availability of a corresponding amount of funds that are already in your account. Those funds will be available at the time funds from the check we cashed would have been available if you had deposited it. If we accept for deposit a check that is drawn on another financial institution, we may make funds from the deposit available for withdrawal immediately but delay your availability to withdraw a corresponding amount of funds that you have on deposit in another account with us. The funds in the other account would then not be available for withdrawal until the time periods that are described elsewhere in this disclosure for the type of check that you deposited.

4. Longer Delays May Apply. We may delay your ability to withdraw funds deposited by check into your account an additional number of days for these reasons:

- We believe a check you deposit will not be paid.
- You deposit checks totaling more than $5,525.00 on any one day.
- You deposit a check that has been returned unpaid.
- You have overdrawn your account repeatedly in the last six months.
- There is an emergency, such as failure of communications or computer equipment.

We will notify you if we delay your ability to withdraw funds for any of these reasons, and we will tell you when the funds will be available. They will generally be available no later than the seventh business day after the day of your deposit.

5. Special Rules for New Accounts. If you are a new member, the following special rules will apply during the first 30 days your account is open. Funds from electronic direct deposits to your account will be available on the same day we receive the deposit. Funds from deposits of cash, wire transfers, and the first $5,000 of a day's total deposits of cashier's, certified, teller's, travelers, and federal, state, and local government checks will be available on the first business day after the day of your deposit if the deposit meets certain conditions. For example, the checks must be payable to you. The excess over $5,000 will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit. If your deposit of these checks (other than a U.S. Treasury check) is not made in person to one of our employees, the first $5,000 will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from all other check deposits will be available on the ninth business day after the day of your deposit.

6. Deposits at Automated Teller Machines. Funds from any deposits (cash or checks) made at automated teller machines ("ATMs") that are owned and operated by the Credit Union will not be available until the second business day after the day of your deposit. Funds from any deposits made at ATMs that are not owned or operated by the Credit Union will not be available until the fifth business day after the day of your deposit.

7. Deposits through Mobile Deposit. Mobile deposit items have a three (3) business day hold once posted to your account. Unless you are otherwise notified, mobile deposit limits are ten (10) items per month or a total of $5,000.00, whichever comes first, with a daily limit of $1,500.00.

1. Electronic Services.

a. ATM's. You may use your Debit Card and PIN (Personal Identification Number) in automated teller machines as the Credit Union may designate. At the present time, you may use your Card to make the following transactions on Higher daily limits may be available for qualified account holders.

c. Deposits. You may make deposits only at ATM's designated by the Credit Union. Because of the servicing schedule and processing time required in ATM operations, there is a delay between the time a deposit (either cash or check) is made and when it will be available for withdrawal. Deposits are subject to verification by the Credit Union. You should review the Credit Union's Funds Availability Policy to determine the availability of funds deposited at ATM's.

d. Transfers. You may transfer between your share and share draft accounts up to the balance in your accounts at the time of the transfer at available locations.

e. VISA Check/Point of Sale (POS). You may use your Check Card to purchase goods and services any place your VISA Card is honored by participating merchants. Funds to cover your VISA Check purchases will be deducted from your checking account. If the balance in your account is not sufficient to pay the transaction amount, the Credit Union may treat the transaction as an overdraft request pursuant to the overdraft protection plan or may terminate all services under this Agreement. If we approve your application for Point of Sale (POS) services, you may use your Check Card and Access code to pay for purchases from merchants who have agreed to accept the Check Card at such POS terminals as the Credit Union may designate.

There is no limit on the number of purchase transactions you may make with your Check Card during a statement period. No purchase may exceed the available funds in your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. You may not use your Check Card for any illegal or unlawful transaction, and we may decline to authorize any transaction that we believe poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds.

2. Audio Response. If we approve the audio response access service for your accounts, you must designate a separate four (4) digit access code. You must use your access code along with your account number to access your accounts. At the present time, you may use the audio response access service to:

- Obtain balance information on your accounts at the Credit Union.
- Transfer funds between your share and share draft accounts.
- Withdraw funds from your share or share draft accounts by check, made payable to you and mailed to you at your mailing address.

Your accounts can be accessed under audio response via a Touch-Tone telephone only. Not all pushbutton phones are Touch-Tone. Converters may be purchased by pulse and rotary dial phones. Audio response service will be available for your convenience seven (7) days per week. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing. If you call during this time you will hear, "Unavailable at this time." Check withdrawals must be made prior to 4:00 p.m. Pacific Standard time to assure same day posting. While there is no limit to the number of inquiries, transfers, or withdrawal requests you may make in any one day, there are certain limitations on transfers from share and money market accounts. Transfers from a share or a money market account will be limited to six (6) in any one month.

No transfer or withdrawal may exceed the available funds in your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction which would draw upon insufficient funds, exceed a credit limit, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. Check transactions may not exceed the amount in your account. There is a $10,000 limit on any transfer. All checks are payable to you as a primary member and will be mailed to your address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits. The Credit Union may refuse to honor any transaction for which you do not have sufficient available verified funds. There is no limit on the number of transaction requests you may make during a single phone call. The system will time-out after 30 seconds if no transaction is entered, and after ten minutes in all cases. If you wish to make any further transactions, you will have to call back. The system will also time-out after three unsuccessful attempts to enter a transaction.

3. Online Banking Services. Upon approval, you the primary member may use your personal computer to access your accounts. You must use your member number along with a security code to access your accounts, if you share your member number along with your security code with another individual including a joint account holder the credit union is not responsible for any transactions made on your behalf. If you fail to maintain or change the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic funds transfer and account services immediately. You may not use your account services for illegal or unlawful transactions, and the Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to complete a transaction that the Credit Union believes poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness.

The Online Banking service is accessible seven (7) days a week, 24 hours a day. However, from time to time, some or all of the Credit Union's Online Banking services may not be available due to system maintenance. You will need a personal computer and a web browser. The online address for the Online Banking service is <https://www.pointwestcu.com>. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance and operation of your computer. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving any telephone service or your computer.

You may use the Online Banking service to:

- Transfer funds between your Savings, Checking and Money Market accounts.
- Transfer funds from your Checking and Savings account to a loan account.

- Request a withdrawal from any Savings, Checking, or loan account by check mailed to you.
- Transfer funds from your share or share draft account to a loan account of yours or any other member's account.
- Other transactions as offered and permitted in the future.

Transactions involving your deposit accounts will be subject to the terms of your Membership and Account Agreement and transactions involving a line of credit account will be subject to your Loan Agreement and Disclosure, as applicable. The following limitations on Online Banking transactions may apply:

i. Transfers. You may make funds transfers to your other accounts as often as you like. However, transfers from your savings or money market accounts will be limited to a total of six (6) in any one month. You may transfer or withdraw up to the available balance in your account or up to the available credit limit on a line of credit at the time of the transfer, except as limited under this Agreement or your deposit or loan agreements. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon insufficient or unavailable funds, lower an account below a required balance, or otherwise require us to increase our required reserve on the account. All checks are payable to you as a primary member and will be mailed to your postal address of record. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction and you will be notified of those limits.

ii. Account Information. The account balance and transaction history information may be limited to recent account information involving your accounts. Also, the availability of funds for transfer or withdrawal may be limited due to the processing time for any ATM deposit transactions and our Funds Availability Policy.

iii. Email. You may use the e-mail to send messages to us. Email may not, however, be used to initiate a transfer on your account or a stop payment request. The Credit Union may not immediately receive email communications that you send and the Credit Union will not take action based on email requests until the Credit Union actually receives your message and has a reasonable opportunity to act. If you need to contact the Credit Union immediately regarding an unauthorized transaction or stop payment request, you may call the Credit Union at the telephone number set forth in Section 5.

iv. Bill Pay Service. When you apply for the Bill Pay Service, you must designate your Checking Account as the account from which payments that you authorize will be deducted. You will be given the ability to set up merchants, institutions or individuals that you would like to pay. You are not permitted to designate governmental agencies or courts. We reserve the right to not allow the designation of a particular merchant or institution.

You or any persons who you have authorized to use your Bill Pay Service, Online Banking Service, sign-on Password or any access code can perform the following transactions:

(a) Pay any designated merchant, institution or individual in accordance with this agreement a fixed recurring amount or a variable amount “on demand,” from your designated Checking Account.

(b) Obtain information (payee information, payment status information, etc.) about your Bill Pay account status.

(c) Bill Pay Transactions. You authorize us to process bill payments from your designated account. You may use the Bill Pay service to initiate three different types of payment transactions:

- “On demand” payments are payments that are not reoccurring. The payments can be canceled or changed through Bill Pay up until 12:00 Midnight before your Scheduled Debit Date.
- “Future” payments are payments that you initiate each payment by setting the payment amount and due date. The payment can be canceled or changed through Bill Pay up until 12:00 Midnight before the Scheduled Debit Date.
- “Recurring” payments are payments that are reoccurring on a fixed due date and fixed amount. You have an option in the Bill Pay system to set Automatic Payments to continue indefinitely or set a maturity date. The payment can be canceled or changed through Bill Pay up until 12:00 Midnight before the Scheduled Debit Date.

(d) Authorized Payments. When you transmit a bill payment instruction to us, you authorize us to transfer funds to make the bill payment transaction from your checking account or any other account you designate. We will process bill payment transfer requests only to those payees the Credit Union has designated in its User Instructions and such payees as you authorize and for whom the Credit Union has the proper payee code number. The Credit Union will not process any bill payment transfer if we know the required transaction information is incomplete. In any event, the Credit Union will not be liable for any transaction that contains incorrect information that the Credit Union was not responsible for entering or knowing. If there are insufficient funds in your account to make the bill payment request, we may either refuse to make the payment or make the payment and transfer funds from any overdraft protection account you have established. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to process payment instructions that reasonably appear to the Credit Union to be fraudulent or erroneous.

(e) Processing Payments. The amount of your requested bill payments will be deducted from your account on the Scheduled Debit Date and will be posted within two business days of the date that the payment is transmitted to the payee. You will receive a confirmation number at the time of each transaction. Therefore, you must have sufficient funds available to cover your payment on the Scheduled Initiation Date.

Bill payments are delivered to the payee either electronically, which may take up to five business days from the Scheduled Debit Date, or by check to those payees not set up to accept electronic payments, which may take up to ten business days from the Scheduled Debit Date. It is your responsibility to schedule your bill payments in such a manner that your obligations will be paid on time. You should enter and transmit your bill payment instructions at least ten (10) business days before a bill is due. If you do not allow sufficient time, you assume full responsibility for any late payments or finance charges that may be imposed as a result of your failure to transmit a timely bill payment authorization.

(f) Canceling or Changing Bill Payments. Payments designated as “on demand” transactions cannot be stopped, canceled or changed once your Bill Pay session has ended. You may cancel or stop payment on Future and Recurring bill payment instructions under certain circumstances by following the instructions provided. If you discover an error in or want to change a payment instruction (i.e., payment date or payment amount) for a bill payment that you have already scheduled for transmission through the Bill Pay service, you may electronically edit or cancel your payment request through the Bill Pay service. Your cancellation request must be entered and transmitted through the Bill Pay service before the date you have scheduled for payment. If your request is not timely entered, you will be responsible for the payment.

If you wish to place an oral stop payment on a recurring bill payment transaction, not using the Bill Pay service, the Credit Union must receive your oral stop payment request at least three (3) business days before the Scheduled Debit Date. You may call the Credit Union at the telephone number set forth in Section 5 to request a stop payment. If you call, the Credit Union may require you to confirm your stop payment request in writing within 14 days after the call.

a. Mobile Banking Service.

i. Account Access. If we approve your application for the Mobile Banking service, you may use your handheld device to access your accounts. To access the Mobile Banking service, you will need a handheld device, a personal computer and access to the Internet (World Wide Web). You must use your password along with your account number to access your accounts. The Mobile Banking service is accessible 7 days a week, 24 hours a day. You are responsible for the installation, maintenance, and operation of the software and your handheld device and for making sure you know how to use the Mobile Banking software. The Credit Union will not be responsible for any errors or failures involving any telephone or cable internet service, software installation, or malfunctions of your home or work handheld device and related equipment. You may experience technical or other difficulties related to use of the Mobile Banking service that results in loss of data, personalization settings or other service interruptions. We assume no responsibility for the timeliness, deletion, misdelivery, service interruptions, or failure to store any user data, communication, or personalization settings in connection with your use of the Mobile/Internet Banking service.

ii. Types of Transactions. At the present time, you may use any of the Mobile Banking services to

- Transfer funds between your checking and savings account and money market and loan accounts.
- Transfer funds from your savings or checking account to a loan account of yours, or to another member’s account as authorized.
- Transfer funds from your savings or checking account to other external financial institutions as authorized.
- Review account balance and account transaction information for any of your accounts.
- Request stop payment orders on your checking account.
- Communicate with the Credit Union using the electronic mail (email) feature.

Transactions involving your deposit accounts will be subject to your Membership and Account Agreement and transactions involving a loan account will be subject to your Consumer Loan Agreement and Disclosures.

4. Electronic Check Transactions. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion transaction and re-presented check fee debit transactions you authorize (“electronic check transactions”). You agree that your authorization for an electronic check transaction occurs when you initiate such a transaction after receiving any notice regarding the merchant's right to process the transaction. Notice may include a sign posted by the merchant at the time and place of your transaction. All terms governing electronic funds transfer services will apply to electronic check transactions. You remain responsible for notifying us of any unauthorized electronic check transaction shown on your statement.

5. Access and Use of Account. The use of your Check Card and Account are subject to the following conditions:

a. Ownership of Cards. Any Check Card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or to any person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the Check Card, immediately according to instructions. The Check Card may be repossessed at any time in our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your Check Card or Account to another person.

b. Authorization. If you the primary member authorize anyone to use your access code, card, or Online Banking service in any manner, that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union and changing your access code immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your access code is changed. If you fail to maintain or change the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic funds transfer and account services immediately. You may not use your account access code, card, or Online Banking service for illegal or unlawful transactions, and the Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to complete a transaction that the Credit Union believes poses an undue risk of illegality or unlawfulness.

c. Security of Access Code. The personal identification number or access code that you select is for your security purposes. The access code is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded. You are responsible for safekeeping your access code. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your access code available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to have or use your access code, you understand that person may use the Internet or Mobile Banking service to review all of your account information and make account transactions. Therefore, we are entitled to act on transaction instructions received using your access code and you agree that the use of your access code will have the same effect as your signature authorizing transactions. If you authorize anyone to use your access code in any manner that authority will be considered unlimited in amount and manner until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union and changing your access code immediately. You are responsible for any transactions made by such persons until you notify us that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and your access code is changed. If you fail to maintain or change the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your electronic funds transfer and account services immediately.

d. Foreign Transactions. Purchases and cash advances made in foreign countries will be billed to you in US dollars. The currency conversion rate for international transactions as established by VISA International, Inc. is a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives, or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. . If there is a currency conversion, you will be charged an foreign transaction fee of 1% of the transaction amount for any card transaction made in a foreign country.

e. Illegal Use of Internet Gambling. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of your VISA Check Card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your VISA Check Card may only be used for legal transactions. Display of a payment card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions with the VISA Check Card.

6. Non-VISA Checking Transactions Processing. We have enabled non-VISA Check transaction processing. This means you may use your VISA Check card on a PIN-Debit Network* (a non-Visa network) without using a PIN. The non-VISA Check network(s) for which such transactions are enabled are the STAR Network. Examples of the types of actions that you may be required to make to initiate a Visa transaction on your Visa Check card include signing a receipt, providing a card number over the phone or via the Internet, or swiping the card through a point-of-sale terminal. Examples of the types of actions you may be required to make to initiate a transaction on a PIN-Debit Network include initiating a payment directly with the biller (possibly via telephone, Internet, or kiosk locations), responding to a logo displayed at a payment site and choosing to direct payment through that network, and having your identity verified using known information derived from an existing relationship with you instead of through use of a PIN. The provisions of your agreement with us relating only to Visa transactions are not applicable to non-Visa transactions. For example, the additional limits on liability (sometimes referred to as Visa's zero-liability program) and the streamlined error resolution procedures offered on VISA Check card transactions are not applicable to transactions processed on a PIN-Debit Network and the liability rules for other EFTs in the Section 3 Member Liability will apply. VISA rules generally define PIN-Debit Network as a non-VISA Check network that typically authenticates transactions by use of a personal identification number (PIN) but that is not generally known for having a card.

7. Member Liability. You are solely responsible for all transfers you authorize using any Services under this Agreement. If you permit other persons to use your Password or access code and initiate transactions with this Service, you are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your Accounts. For business accounts, you understand that any transaction by a business owner, employee, agent representative or anyone you authorize to transact business on your Account or any transaction by an authorized person that exceeds the specific transaction authority you have provided is considered an authorized transaction for which you remain fully responsible. You are responsible for safeguarding your business, financial and personal data, passwords and other information to prevent unauthorized access to or use of your Accounts through this Service. When you give someone your password, you are authorizing that person to access your deposit Accounts using this Service, and you are responsible for all transactions that person performs while using the Service. All transactions that person performs even those transactions you did not intend or want performed are authorized transactions. If you notify us that the person is no longer authorized, then only transactions that person performs after the time you notify us are considered unauthorized. Transactions that you or someone acting with you initiates with fraudulent intent are also authorized transactions.

If you believe your Check Card or access code has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission, call 503.546.5000 or 888.468.5826 or write to Card Services, Point West Credit Union, PO Box 11999, Portland, OR 97211.

8. Fees and Charges. There are certain charges for electronic fund transfer services as set forth on the Fee Schedule. From time to time, the charges may be changed. We will notify you of any changes as required by law. If you request a transfer or check withdrawal from your line of credit account, such transactions may be subject to charges under the terms and conditions of your VISA Credit Card Agreement. ATM transactions are free. If you use an ATM that is not operated by us, you may be charged an ATM surcharge by the ATM operator or an ATM network utilized for such a transaction. The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction.

9. Right to Receive Documentation of Transfers.

a. Periodic Statements. Transfers and withdrawals transacted through any electronic funds transfer service will be recorded on your periodic statement. You will receive a statement monthly unless there is no transaction in a particular month. In any case, you will receive a statement at least quarterly.

b. Direct Deposits. If you have arranged to have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can find out whether or not the deposit has been made by calling the phone numbers listed above. This does not apply to transactions occurring outside the United States.

c. Terminal Receipt. You will receive a receipt at the time you make a transaction using an ATM, POS terminal or with a participating VISA merchant, except some electronic terminals will not provide receipts for transactions of $15 or less.

10. Account Information Disclosure. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- As necessary to complete transfers;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- To comply with government agency or court orders;
- If you give us your written permission.

11. Credit Union Liability. The Credit Union shall have no liability to you, or any other person or entity for any loss, damage, cost, or expense arising out of this Agreement or the Electronic Services regardless of the form in which asserted, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), warranty, or any other legal or equitable grounds, and regardless of whether the remedies available fail of their essential purpose, except as provided by applicable law for any error or delay in performing the Electronic Services provided for in this Agreement. We shall have no liability for not completing a transaction, if we receive actual notice or have reason to believe that you have filed for bankruptcy, the ownership of funds involving a transaction or the Authorized Representative's authority to conduct a transaction is in question; we suspect your Account has been used for illegal or fraudulent purposes; or we reasonably believe that a transaction is prohibited by federal law or regulation, or this Agreement. We will not be liable if you fail to report timely any error or discrepancy reflected in a statement prepared by us, or if you fail to report a breach of a security procedure. If we fail to perform under this Agreement in accordance with the standards set herein, our liability for damages, losses, and other compensation owing to you shall be limited to direct damages caused solely by the Credit Union. We shall not be liable for any loss, damage, liability, or claim arising directly or indirectly from any error, delay, or failure to perform hereunder which is caused by earthquakes, fires, natural disasters, civil or foreign disturbances, power outages, acts of government, labor disputes, failures in either communication or computer networks, legal constraints, or any other event beyond its control.

12. Termination of Electronic Services. You agree that we may terminate this Agreement and your Online Banking, Bill Pay, or external transfer services, if you, or any authorized user of EFT services or Password breach this or any other agreement with us; or if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your accounts or Password. In addition, we reserve the right to terminate the service if you fail to use the service for more than two consecutive billing cycles. You or any other party to your account can terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. However, monthly fees will apply for any partial month with no prorating. Termination of this Agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this Agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

The Credit Union will notify you, by mail, at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law.
